

St Ronans News Letter July 18

Trixie's Blog

Hurrah, such beautiful sunshine and last week we had our first of many BBQ's, wonderful. Difficult to make dates due to English weather, but I will put a notice and date up in the lobby where you sign in for the next one so you may join us. X

We are enjoying our garden which looks lovely – Roses all about and everything in bloom – just right for coffee mornings and for families to enjoy together.

Our weekly picnics out and fish and chips continue with great relish – such a fun time and lovely for different groups to be together on the bus. Sue our driver is amazing and gorgeous. X

Our Communion with dear Bob and Blessings with Wendy continue thankfully, and help to enrich our lives here at St Ronans. Another form of coming together happily for different reasons.

Our next homemade cake sale will be on Tuesday 14th August from 10am, do come – where all proceeds go into our Resident's fund for special treats – Trips to the Theatre, the making of personalised ceramics at St Ronans to be given as gifts to a family member, anything that enhances their lives.

Please continue to write feedback forms and pop them into Matron's wooden box in the lobby where you sign in.

Thank you all for your continuing and loving support.
With warmest hugs or coolest at the moment! Phew
